Raw data:

What's your general opinion on the Physics Society?	How would you describe the environment of the physics society? (check as many as applies)	How would you describe the type of activities we do in the physics society? (check as many as applies)	What's your opinion on talks? (check as many as applies)	What's your opinion on the frequency of the meetings?	What do you think of the mailing list?	When you miss a physics society meeting, what would be the reason(s)?	Anything else?	Any suggestions for the future?
It's very good	Friendly, Chill, Interactive	It has lots of variety!		It's nice/OK	It's being used appropriately	I have time constraints, It clashes with something else that I prefer doing/need to do
It's good, but it could be better!	Friendly, Intense	It's mostly just talks!	I'm not very fond of them	It's nice/OK	It's being used appropriately	I have time constraints
It's alright.	Friendly, Interactive, Feels like lectures (in a bad way)	It's mostly just talks!, Can get boring	They're too long, They're difficult to follow, They're alright	Too frequent	It's being used appropriately	It's not so interesting

It's alright.	Elitist, Intense, Interactive, Meh	It has lots of variety!, Can get boring	I like them	It's nice/OK	It should be used more sparingly	I'm too tired, It clashes with something else that I prefer doing/need to do

							Why did the duck cross College Ring 3? To get to The Other Side (TOS). :D

It's good, but it could be better!	Friendly, Chill, Interactive	It has lots of variety!	I like them, I like the variety of the difficulties (judging from last year, since I haven't been present this year yet)	Usually it's okay (I start thinking they are too frequent only when attending becomes an inconvenience)	It's being used appropriately, Entertaining emails are nice	I have time constraints, I'm too tired, It clashes with something else that I prefer doing/need to do	I think that having more people give talks is a good thing, as it adds to the variety. (I'll get my talk going)	Maybe having a planned thing about inviting professors to give a talk. An idea: a talk by a professor per semester (not sure if Prof. Materny's talk for the Nobel prize will count) similar to how Professor Petrat gave one last semester.
It's good, but it could be better!	Friendly, Chill	It's mostly just talks!	They're difficult to follow, I like them	Too frequent	It's being used appropriately	I have time constraints, It clashes with something else that I prefer doing/need to do		Honestly it would be funnier if more people attended the activities
